Marja is proud to call the Catholic Church her home, and is excited to travel to local parishes for her first book tour. She is relying on her faith, a strong theme throughout the book, to fulfil the spiritual commission she received to publish this memoir. Telling the story of her parents' struggles enduring the horrible condition in Holland and Germany during WWII, and their eventual pathway to immigrating to the United States, was a calling she was proud to answer. Books can be purchased during the event for $26.00 (includes sales tax).

Long Shall You Live is available for purchase on Amazon for $23.99, soft cover and digital download via their www.longshallyoulive.com for $12.99 (Kindle and ePub).

About the Author: Marja Henderson was born on January 29, 1955 in Vlaardingen, Holland, the fifth daughter of Dominicus and Suzanna van Lith. A retired registered nurse and professional singer, she now spends much of her time being an "Oma" to her dozen grandchildren. Long Shall You Live is her first major undertaking as an author. She was committed to the challenge her parents imprinted on her about the Holocaust, to "Never forget what happened, and never let it happen again!" Her hope is that it will become an
