PASCO, Washington:

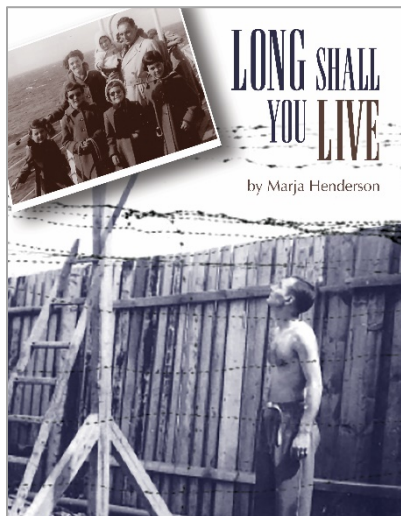

With a relationship spanning more than 4 decades, St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Pasco, is hosting the first book signing for parishioner and author Marja Henderson. Her inaugural book signing will be held the weekend of September 16th and 17th, 2017 during coffee hour following all four Masses. Mass times are 5:00pm Saturday and 7:30am, 9:00am, and 10:30am Sunday. In her own words from the book, Marja writes: "It was during [a] papal audience when I was touched by the universality of the Catholic Church. Oh, I knew that there were over a billion Catholics around the world, but to see so many of us gathered together, all followers of Jesus Christ, enhanced my belief and understanding of this powerful gift of the Church on Earth, handed down to St. Peter, and continuing uninterrupted for nearly two thousand years." Long Shall You Live, Chapter 25

Marja is proud to call the Catholic Church home and host the first signing at her parish. A portion of the proceeds will benefit St. Patrick's Guatemala Mission and the parish Altar Society. Books can be purchased at the event for $26.00 including tax.

Long Shall You Live is available for purchase on Amazon for $23.99, soft cover and digital download via their www.longshallyoulive.com for $12.99 (Kindle and ePub).

About the Author: Marja Henderson was born on January 29, 1955 in Vlaardingen, Holland, the fifth daughter of Dominicus and Suzanna van Lith. A retired registered nurse and professional singer, she now spends much of her time being an "Oma" to her dozen grandchildren. Long Shall You Live is her first major undertaking as an author. She was committed to the challenge her parents imprinted on her about the Holocaust, to "Never forget what happened, and never let it happen again!" Her hope is that it will become an important message of strength through faith, hope, and lasting love for all who read it.
